

The World Health Organization (WHO) and respective governments have reported a total of 2.4701×10^4 suspected cases and 1.0194×10^4 deaths, though the WHO believes that this substantially understates the magnitude of the outbreak. In the United States there has been 4 reported cases and 1 deaths.